

RUN YOUR MOUTH.

And maybe get paid for it.

You know journalism rocks. Now tell the world.

We want other students, teachers, parents and community members to realize journalism's important role in the school curriculum.

Design a 11x17 poster that would visually explain why students need journalism. If we choose yours, we'll give you $200. Then we'll print the poster and give them to school counselors and journalism teachers to display in their offices and classrooms.

You'll be famous. Sort of.

Send poster as a PDF to MIPA at mipa@msu.edu by Jan. 1, 2010.
