EVERYBODY HAS A STORY. WE RELY ON JOURNALISTS TO FIND AND TELL THEM.

Explore how to tell stories that make a difference, go beyond the surface and get to the truth at the MIPA Summer Journalism Workshop from July 26–30.

Spend five days on Michigan State University’s campus working with some of the best instructors in the nation. Then take what you learn back to your school newspaper, yearbook, video production or news website.

Don’t work on a student media staff? Our journalism-focused curriculum provides skills and techniques that you can apply in a variety of areas — from class to life. Become a better writer, explore print or digital media creation and find your voice.

You’ll make new friends for life, and we guarantee you’ll leave more energized than ever.

DON’T GET LOST IN A CROWD OF EXTRAS
MSU may be a big place, but we keep our classes small so you’ll get all the individual help you need. You’ll learn the latest trends and innovations, plus get motivated and return home ready to make your student media the best it has ever been!

HELP TO PAY FOR YOUR BLOCKBUSTER EXPERIENCE
We’ve got some great fundraising ideas and tools, including MIPA’s SponsorMe crowdfunding system. Set up a SponsorMe account and raise money from the people you know toward your workshop registration. MIPA is also excited to offer several scholarships. For more information on any of these funding opportunities, visit our website.

REGISTER NOW
Cost for the workshop is only $425 if you prepay by June 10. Classes fill up fast!
